AUSTRALIAN WINE COMPANION 2011

PETER LEHMANN WINES ★★★★★

Wigan Eden Valley Riesling 2005 🌟

Rating 94

Glowing yellow-green; a very complex bouquet with ripe lemon blossom and a touch of kerosene; the palate is much tighter but no less intense, still to fully unfurl its wings. Screwcap. 11.5% alc. To 2015.

Margaret Barossa Semillon 2005 🌟

Rating 94

A complex wine; when compared to Hunter Semillons it has a different DNA code; tasted separately, it seems as much Hunter as Barossa; manages to combine ripe citrus flavour with delicacy; long, satisfying finish. Screwcap. 11.5% alc. To 2020.

Stonewell Shiraz 2005

Rating 94

The bouquet offers dark, dense, mocha fruit with a notable fruitcake spice presence; the palate is full and rich, almost brutish at first, but the fruit comes to the fore late in the piece while the charry oak also provides lift; has a harmonious finish. Screwcap. 14.5% alc. To 2024.

Black Queen Sparkling Shiraz 2005 🌟

Rating 94 – Best of the Best List

From small Barossa Valley vineyards including one owned by Peter and Margaret Lehmann; 1 year in barrel before being tiraged and bottled, then 2 years (minimum) on lees. Elegant and very well balanced wine. Cork. 14% alc. To 2020.

Eden Valley Shiraz 2007

Rating 93

To 2022.

The King Vintage Port 1998

Rating 93

To 2028.

Barossa Shiraz 2008 ⚡

Rating 91

Highly polished red and black fruit bouquet, with a touch of liquorice for interest; the palate is quite fleshy, with the tannins asserting themselves on the finish; warm and rich to conclude. Screwcap. 14.5% alc. To 2018.

Cabernet Merlot 2006 ⚡

Rating 91

An elegant light-to medium-bodied wine that reflects the great vintage and (apparently) a significant Eden Valley contribution to the fresh cassis and blackcurrant fruits; the structure is particularly fine. Screwcap. 14% alc. To 2014.

Chardonnay Pinot Noir 2006

Rating 91

To 2012.

Light Pass Shiraz 2007

Rating 90

To 2015.
